AFRICAN CURRENCY FORUM
2027

WHY ATTEND?

African Currency Forum 2027 offers an opportunity to gain a broader understanding of the developments influencing banknote operations across Africa, where cash and banknotes continue to play a central role in everyday transactions, while engaging directly with professionals and specialists active in the field.

The Association of African Banknote and Security Documents Printers (AABSDP) consists of eight government security printers from Algeria, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Egypt, Morocco, Nigeria, South Africa, Sudan, and Zimbabwe, offering the highest level of service for the banknote and security documents industry.

The Forum provides a setting to explore new approaches, compare industry perspectives, identify relevant technologies and solutions, and gain insights that can support future planning and decision-making. It also creates a focused environment for building professional relationships with organisations involved throughout the banknote supply chain.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The Forum is intended for professionals involved in the planning, management, procurement, production, circulation, processing, authentication and security of banknotes, including:

- Central Banks & Issuing Authorities
- Government Security Printers
- Currency & Cash Management Professionals
- Banknote Production & Security Specialists
- Banknote Substrate & Materials Suppliers
- Security Feature & Technology Providers
- Banknote Processing & Cash Management Companies
- Banknote Equipment & Systems Suppliers
- Counterfeit Detection & Anti-Counterfeiting Professionals

AFRICAN CURRENCY FORUM
2027

ABOUT THE AFRICAN CURRENCY FORUM 2027

The Association of African Banknote and Secure Documents Printers (AABSDP) is pleased to announce the fifth edition of the African Currency Forum hosted by The Central Bank of Egypt (CBE), to be held in Hurghada from 01 to 04 February 2027.
This Forum brings together central banks, issuing authorities, government security printers, technology providers, cash-industry specialists and international suppliers to discuss the challenges and developments shaping banknotes around the world, and more specifically in Africa.

The Forum provides a platform for presentations, technical sessions, panel discussions and professional networking, covering subjects including banknote and security documents printing, security, design, substrates, cash processing, currency management, counterfeiting, sustainability.

Its objective is to provide delegates with practical information and industry perspectives to support informed decisions throughout the banknote lifecycle—from specifying and procuring banknotes to their production, circulation, processing and eventual replacement.

The Forum also encourages the exchange of experience between African issuing authorities and international companies, creating opportunities to discuss technologies, solutions and developments relevant to the region.

African Currency Forum 2027 will continue this approach, bringing together the banknote community for focused discussions, knowledge exchange and professional engagement around the future of banknotes and cash.
